- Overcoming the 5 Dysfunctions of a Team
Presenter(s): Lisa Jacobson, Cascadia College Bothell
Location: 28-106
Description: This session will look in-depth at the The Five Dysfunctions of a Team by Patrick Lencioni; participants will learn about the most common dysfunctions that make organizations, office teams, committees, and other work groups ineffective. Participants will leave the session with strategies to overcome each dysfunction in their own teams. This session was presented at the NAFSA Region 1 Conference this year in Vancouver, BC.
- "Don't Pack a Pest" for student travelers
Presenter(s): Tania Siemens, Oregon State University; Nicole Brooks, CBP Officer at PDX; Chris Richards, CBP Agriculture Chief at SeaTac; Robert Keck, SITC Officer, USDA APHIS PPQ
Location: 28-107
Description: Our project looks at international and study abroad student awareness of what they can pack, and their experience with traveling through customs at airports, to develop outreach that is more relevant for international/study abroad programs and their students. Participants will join a fun hands-on activity led by USDA-APHIS and Custom and Border Protection officers looking at common items students bring with them. Can you guess if they are permitted? Sample research and outreach materials will be available.
