The Cambridge Student

Presenter(s): Adina Chapman, Cambridge Assessment

Location: Student Center 130

Description: Cambridge International Examinations is the world's largest provider of grades 9-12 international education. This session shares what you need to know to recruit these students, including the curriculum and assessments (O-level, IGCSE, AS, and A-level), and official documentation and results services. Hear how Washington high schools (including Juanita, Federal Way, and Bethel) have incorporated Cambridge's international curriculum, including Global Perspectives and Research. You will also hear from universities' perspectives on how the Cambridge curriculum has prepared their students for success (including admission and transfer policies for Cambridge IGCSE, O-level, AS, A-Level, and the AICE diploma).

Navigating Without a COMPASS: Current Issues in IEP Placement Procedures

Presenter(s): Anthony Devito, Cascadia College; Shao-Wei Wang, Cascadia College

Location: Student Center 221

Description: With COMPASS placement software becoming defunct this year, many intensive English Programs (IEP) have been forced to reevaluate their IEP placement procedures. Using Cascadia College's recent transition away from COMPASS as a launching point, we will have a larger discussion on the challenges and interdepartmental effects of IEP placement.

Learning Objectives:

- Navigate which IEP placement procedure is best for their institutions.
- Identify the effects that IEP placement has beyond the program.
- Connect with the Region I IEP knowledge community.
